

The Best Winery on Each Continent

North America - Peju Winery

Credit: Lukasz Sz waj/Shutterstock

California helped put North American wine on the map, thanks to the Judgment of Paris in 1976 that proved Napa Valley winemakers could produce wine just as well as the French. There are a number of notable and legendary wineries in the region today. One of the rising stars continues to be Peju Winery, whose winemaker Sara Fowler was recently named best local winemaker by Napa Valley Life Magazine. In recent years, Peju wines have consistently earned gold medals and received 90+ point ratings. The elegant estate in Rutherford, California is worth a visit, and you'll swoon over its quaint elegance and charm as you sip premier wine.