Province Gift Set

In 1987, Tony Peju set out to craft a wine that could bring everyone to the table—a chilled red-and-white blend for both white and red fans. The result was Province, a PEJU classic with notes of strawberry-rhubarb pie, hibiscus, raspberry, and a zesty lime twist. Fun, fresh, and versatile, Province pairs with spicy dishes, light bites, and good times all year long. Presented in a festive, sustainable gift box, it's ready to toast every celebration.

2022 Fifty/Fifty Gift Set

Fifty/Fifty began with HB, who had a hunch that two great grapes might be even better together. She took the idea to our winemaker, Sara Fowler, and the two of them landed on a blend that splits the difference right down the middle: half Merlot, half Cabernet Sauvignon. When HB poured it for Tony, he was sold on the first sip, and Fifty/Fifty has had a following ever since. The Merlot brings soft blue fruit and a round, easy feel, while the Cabernet adds a little backbone along with blackberry and black currant. The theme keeps going in the cellar, with equal parts French and American oak, half of it new. Our wine is rich without being fussy, just as good with a Sunday roast as it is with friends dropping by on a Tuesday. It comes in a sustainable gift box, so it's ready to hand over as is, and we'd be glad to set one aside for you.

Dessert Delivered Gift Set

The part of dinner everyone claims they're too full for, and then eats anyway. Delicias is our port-style Zinfandel, rich, a little sweet, the kind of pour that comes in a small glass and lasts a while. The two Le Belge chocolate truffles, handcrafted right here in the Napa Valley, are meant to be eaten right alongside it. That's the whole idea: no plates, no fuss, just something good at the end of the night. Send it to the friend who always saves room.

Cabernet & Chocolates Gift Set

Our Cabernet Sauvignon is the one we reach for when the night feels worth marking. Dark cherry and blackberry, a little cocoa and spice, and a soft finish that lingers longer than you expect. Alongside it are truffles from Anette's, our local Napa Valley chocolatier, made with our own Cabernet Sauvignon, so the pairing was built in from the start. The two arrive together in a sustainable gift box, ready to give or to keep for yourself.

Puzzle & Pour Gift Set

A bottle of our Carneros Pinot Noir and a thousand pieces of something to do with your hands. The puzzle is a periodic table of wine grapes, hand-illustrated and organized by body and acidity, so by the time it's finished they'll have picked up more than they expected. The Pinot is the right partner for it — soft red fruit, easy to keep coming back to. Give it to the friend who'd rather stay in on a Friday, and mean it as a compliment.

PEJU Provisions Gift Set

You know the one. The friend whose kitchen everyone ends up in, who never lets you bring anything and somehow always has enough. Send them this. Our Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is the anchor — dark cherry, a little cocoa, easy alongside whatever's on the table. The Journeyman Finocchiona is made with that same Cabernet, and the Dunham olive oil is pressed from the trees on our property, so nearly the whole box comes from the same few acres in Rutherford. For once, they get to be the one taken care of.

Napa Valley Essentials Gift Set

Two PEJU favorites, one box, and an easy answer to most occasions. Our 2025 Sauvignon Blanc is the bright one, all citrus and green apple with a little tropical fruit, made for the patio and the first hour of a dinner party. Our 2023 Merlot takes it from there, with blackberry, plum, and a touch of mocha that settles in and stays a while. They arrive together in a sustainable two-bottle gift box, ready for sharing, giving, or a night that turns into something worth celebrating.

Chardonnay & Pinot Noir Gift Set

A white and a red, from two places we know well. The 2024 Chardonnay from Napa Valley is bright and easy to like. The 2024 Pinot Noir from Carneros is softer and a little earthy, the kind of red that doesn't ask much of the food next to it. They come boxed and ready to give — the Chardonnay for while everyone's still standing around the kitchen, the Pinot once the table is set.

Red & White Delight Gift Set

One to open now, one to save. Our 2025 Sauvignon Blanc is bright and citrusy, the bottle that gets poured the moment someone walks in the door. The 2022 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is dark cherry and cocoa, better suited to a long dinner and no plans afterward. Between the two, they're covered for just about any night that comes up. A good one for the friend or family member who's hosted you more times than you've counted.

Napa Valley Treasure Chest Gift Set

Two reds that belong together, in one very good-looking box. The 2022 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is all dark cherry and cocoa — the one you open when dinner's been in the oven since noon. The 2023 Cabernet Franc is its brighter counterpart, red currant and a little savory spice, made for a cheese board and a night nobody's in a hurry to end. They come tucked into a keepsake chest that will almost certainly be repurposed for something important. A gift for the people you'd like to thank properly.

Ultimate Treasure Chest

Some gifts are fleeting, this one keeps giving. Inside the chest are two 2021 Reserves, made by our winemaker Sara Fowler from the fruit she sets aside each year for exactly this — the Cabernet Franc, bright with red currant and savory spice, and the Cabernet Sauvignon, deeper, dark cherry and cocoa. These are the bottles to open when the occasion calls for it. And when they're gone, the chest stays: burlwood, leather straps, the kind of thing that ends up holding letters. For the person who'll know what they're drinking.

Perfectly Province Gift Set

Three bottles of Province, and suddenly the party plans itself. It's chilled, it's ruby-red, it's strawberry-rhubarb with a little lime, and it makes the red-drinkers and the white-drinkers equally happy — which is a rare thing. Give it to the friend who's always the one hosting, the sister who deserves a good weekend, or anyone whose holiday table could use three bottles of something easy. Our most popular gift for a reason.

Beautifully presented in a sustainable gift box, it's a gift that brings joy, laughter, and unforgettable moments.

Napa Valley Sampler Gift Set

Here's the fun part: open all three and you can taste how the blend gets made. Our Cabernet Sauvignon brings the dark cherry and structure, Merlot brings the softer, rounder side, and the Fifty/Fifty is what happens when they meet in the middle. Line them up, pour a little of each, and let everyone argue about which one they like best. A gift for the friend who's curious about wine but would rather taste than read about it.

The Dreamscape Collection

Created exclusively for Club PEJU. Four wines, four paintings, one story. Bay Area artist Robin Gibson painted each label from a real place on our estate: the oak over Persephone Vineyard, the reservoir at Tess Vineyard, the farm, the sycamores that have lined the drive since the beginning here in Rutherford. Nothing here is invented. The bottles sit in a pine display box made to stay open on a counter, and the lid carries the story behind it, thirty acres planted in 1983 and the second generation now at the helm. Signed by Herta, Lisa, and Ariana, three women who love art and wine. Give it to someone who'll read the box before they open it.

PEJU Pantry Gift Set

For the friend who loves to host, give them a taste of Napa Valley. Almost everything here came from a few acres in Rutherford. The Dunham olive oil is pressed from the trees on our property. The Meyer lemon pâtes de fruit are made with fruit off Ariana Peju's tree, which produces far more than one family can reasonably use. The Finocchiona salame is made with our Cabernet Sauvignon. And the Le Belge chocolate truffles are the one thing we didn't grow — they're made just down the road in Napa by a producer we've come to love. A gift for anyone who reads menus for fun, or who'd rather be handed something delicious than a candle.
